Text : A careless night Watchman.

Zakari was the night watchman of a huge building in Lome. He was always careful . But one night he found a bottle of palm wine outside the front gate. He sat down and drank it greedily. Soon he felt worn out and weak. He got up and went inside and forgot to lock the gate. Then he lay down under his shelter and went sleep.

That night two thieves came up the gate , pushed it open and entered the building. Zakari's boss who was sleeping in the building woke up and saw the thieves. He shouted loudly and called for help. The thieves were frightened and ran away. The night watchman didn't wake up. He didn't know that the thieves had been there until his boss told him the next morning. He was sacked for negligence.
